Chairman Skeffington said he was at the second lock-in event at Dave & Buster's last year and said it was well-run. He said the bar is closed off. He said it is better to have the students at Dave & Buster's than elsewhere. Ms. Samson said students who attend the prom are required to attend the event at Dave & Buster's. Chairman Skeffington suggested it might be a good idea to change the name of the event from "lock-in" to something less austere. Chairman Skeffington asked if anyone in the audience wished to address the commission about the petition. There were no respondents. Motion made by Commissioner Gilgun and seconded by Commissioner Pappalardo to grant the request for a "lock-in" event; approved, 3-0.

Improv Asylum, 216 Hanover Street, Boston, MA, application for special 1-day liquor licenses for a gamers lounge popup event at 34 Cummings Park Drive from 12 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday, August 24, 2018; 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday, August 25, 2018; and 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Sunday, August 26, 2018: Appearing on behalf of the petitioner was Pablo Rojas, Improv Asylum, 216 Hanover Street, Boston, MA. Mr. Rojas said his firm is working with Mind Trek Virtual Reality and the event will offer a virtual reality experience that is fully immersive. Commissioner Pappalardo asked about the hours of alcohol service on Friday, which are listed as being from 12 a.m. to 10 p.m. Clerk of Commission said he believes there is a typographical error and the hours should read from 12 p.m. to 10 p.m. Mr. Rojas said that is correct and initialed the application indicating the hours will be from 12 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday. Chairman Skeffington asked who will be serving the alcohol. Mr. Rojas said the alcohol service will be provided by bartenders certified with ServSafe. Chairman Skeffington asked how many people will attend each day. Mr. Rojas replied there is a maximum attendance of 80 people per day. Chairman Skeffington said the petition is requesting 10 hours of alcohol service on Friday, 12 hours of alcohol service on Saturday and eight hours of alcohol service on Sunday. Mr. Rojas said no one will be served more than two drinks per hour, and food consumption will be encouraged. Chairman Skeffington said that still means someone would be able to consume 20 drinks if they are there for 10 hours. Mr. Rojas said the bartenders will be sure to limit consumption. Commissioner Pappalardo asked Capt. Murphy for his opinion about this event.

Capt. Murphy said the city has not hosted this type of event before. Mr. Rojas said his company stages events like this in Boston, and Improv Asylum has a license to serve wine and beer. He said they are accustomed to this type of event. Capt. Murphy asked how many people are expected to attend. Mr. Rojas said the number of attendees will be cut off at 80 per day. Chairman Skeffington asked if Improv Asylum has a sister company. Mr. Rojas said there is an affiliation with Asylum Gaming & ESports and its current license is specific to 216 Hanover Street in Boston. Chairman Skeffington asked if there is a police detail present when events like this are held in Boston. Mr. Rojas said the company does not usually hire a police detail. Chairman Skeffington asked if anyone in the audience wished to address the commission about the petition. There were no respondents. Motion made by Commissioner Gilgun to approve the special 1-day license. Chairman Skeffington said if the event is for three days, the applicant should send another check for $100 to cover the other two days. Mr. Rojas said that would not be a problem. Commissioner Pappalardo said he is not comfortable with the petition because it involves too much volume and too much drinking. Mr. Rojas said it is unlikely anyone would stay at the event for the entire day. He said it is a ticketed event with a typical capacity of 15 people at one time. He said most attendees spend an hour or two gaming and then leave. Motion to grant the special 1-day license seconded by Chairman Skeffington; approved, 2-1, with Commissioner Pappalardo opposed.

Chairman Skeffington asked if there is map on file with the commission of where the alcohol will be served. Mr. Kelley said there is. Chairman Skeffington said this is one the best events in Woburn and there has never been a problem in the history of the event. Ms. Ballenger said the area where the entertainment will be performed is very small and not like a stage. Jackielyn Diloyan, 4 Connors Drive, asked how the alteration of premises would impact noise. Attorney Salvati said all the renovations are interior. He said most of the activity is on the Draper Street side of the building and there is no way the neighbors on Connors Drive will hear anything. Ms. Dilovan said she does not oppose the petition as long as there are no loud noises past midnight. Update on status of Common Victualer's licenses: Clerk of the Commission said there are still two licenses outstanding: Dunkin' Donuts at 880 Main Street and D'Angelo's at 301 Mishawum Road. Clerk said there is still an issue with the fire department at 880 Main Street but he has been unable to make any progress with D'Angelo's. Capt. Murphy said he has been similarly unsuccessful in persuading anyone at D'Angelo's to submit their paperwork for the renewal of a Common Victualer's license. Chairman Skeffington said if it is not taken care of by the September meeting, the commission will start proceedings to close them down.

Approval of meeting minutes from July 19, 2018: Motion made by Commissioner Gilgun and seconded by Chairman Skeffington to approve the minutes as submitted; approved, 2-0, with an abstention by Commissioner Pappalardo.

Set dates for future meetings: Chairman Skeffington said the commission may want to only set the dates for the September, November and December meetings because there is uncertainty with the availability of City Council Chambers in October due to the early voting period. He said the commission will have more concrete scheduling information at its September meeting for the October mandatory meeting for liquor license holders. Capt. Murphy said he will be unavailable to attend a meeting after October 28. Motion made by Commissioner Gilgun and seconded by Commissioner Pappalardo to set the following dates for regular meetings: Thursday, September 20, 2018; Thursday, November 15, 2018; and Thursday, December 20, 2018; approved, 3-0.

Any other matters that may be legally before the Commission: Commissioner Gilgun said he has been approached by representatives from the Greek Church and St. Barbara's Church about obtaining full liquor licenses. He said the commission would have to inquire about with the ABCC if the commission can legally issue liquor licenses. Chairman Skeffington said he is not opposed to such an inquiry, but he noted there are currently no general liquor licenses available and special legislation would have to be passed to issue more liquor licenses, and that would have to be done through one of the city's representatives in the legislature. He said if the churches do obtain liquor licenses, they would not be exempt from the applicable fees. Chairman Skeffington said he will inquire with the ABCC and the City Solicitor and that he will be as much help as he can be. Commissioner Gilgun said the licenses would cover any event at the churches.

Clerk of the Commission distributed a survey of liquor license fees that was requested by the commission at its August meeting. Commissioner Skeffington said the information was very much appreciated. He noted the following fee schedule for Woburn: Package stores - $1,700; Hotels - $2,500; Restaurants - $2,500; Clubs - $100. He said if you compare Woburn's fees to those of other communities, it is clear Woburn does not charge enough. He estimated the average fee for a hotel is $3,200, a restaurant is about $3,000 and a club is $1,000. He said the city does not charge filing fees while most other communities charge filing fees. He said the city charges $2 for renewal of a fortune teller license while other communities charge between $50-$75 for a fortune teller's license. He said the $50 fee for a 1-day liquor license is low. Chairman Skeffington said to keep in mind the commission can still waive the application fee for a 1-day license if the organization is a non-profit. Commissioner Pappalardo asked if the goal of the survey was to increase fees. Chairman Skeffington said he thinks the city should get in line with other communities because it is losing money. He said he does not want the city to be the most expensive community in the area, but he said Woburn should be in line with everyone else. Commissioner Gilgun asked Chairman Skeffington how he would propose to increase the fees. Chairman Skeffington said he has a meeting with Mayor Scott Galvin scheduled for tomorrow morning to discuss liquor license fees. Commissioner Pappalardo said it would be helpful if the clerk provided an average of the fees for each category. Chairman Skeffington suggested the following increases to the license fees in Woburn - $2,400 for a package store license; $3,500 for hotels; $3,000 for restaurants and $500 for clubs. He suggested the fee for the two veterans' clubs in the city should remain at $100. Commissioner Gilgun said he is a veteran and thinks any changes should be made across the board. Chairman Skeffington suggested increasing the fee for veterans' clubs to $200. Commissioner Gilgun said he agrees with that suggestion. Chairman Skeffington suggested establishing a filing fee at $150. He said it is not a large amount and it is right in line with other communities. Commissioner Gilgun said just because Newton and Wellesley have big filing fees, it doesn't mean Woburn has to follow suit. Chairman Skeffington said a $150 filing fee is still on the low end. Chairman Skeffington said he thinks the city's $250 fee for an entertainment license is fine as it is. Chairman Skeffington said he thinks the fee for a fortune teller's license ought to increase to $50. Chairman Skeffington said the fee for a special 1-day liquor license ought to increase to $100. He reiterated the commission will still have the option to waive the fee for non-profit events. Commissioner Pappalardo asked if that fee will put Woburn on the higher end. Chairman Skeffington said he would like to take the proposed list of fees to Mayor Galvin. Motion made by Commissioner Gilgun and seconded by Commissioner Pappalardo to allow Chairman Skeffington to discuss the proposed list of fees with Mayor Galvin and report back to the commission; approved, 3-0. Wilma Thomas, 3 Independence Drive, Woburn, MA, said some of the events at the Greek Church are for profit and others are non-profit and asked what the fee would be for a wedding, for instance. Chairman Skeffington replied the fee for a non-profit event would be $100. Ms. Thomas said she thinks the commission is being very fair.

Chairman Skeffington reported the clerk forwarded him an email from the City Clerk from a "concerned citizen" who reported the following regarding Waxy O'Connor's: "I have a question that maybe you could answer for me. I been a long-time resident of Woburn and owned my own restaurant for over 15 years. I went out to lunch with my wife last Thursday at Waxy's in Woburn, my wife and I both ordered a glass of white wine. The server said they were out of Chardonnay and Pinot, that was fine and me both ordered red instead. After lunch as we were leaving walking to our car we noticed a black Mercedes parked at the side door with the trunk open. A blonde woman had four bottles off white wine in her hand then walked in the side doors of the restaurant. As we got closer another young guy comes out and goes into the trunk and grabs a box filled with different type of liquor. I went up to him and said to him, I just had lunch and you guys had no white wine. The employee said, and this is what I found weird, I apologize my general manager went to the liquor store to pick up what we were out off. So being a owner of a restaurant for many years, my question is: Have (sic) the law changed? Now can you purchase liquor for your restaurant from a liquor store? Instead (of) from your licensed distributor? I thought that was highly illegal, but I googled the law and it seemed to be the same. So I was kinda confused and wondering if they have not updated the law and you now can purchase liquor from any liquor store for your restaurants. Your feedback would help me out a lot, still being in the restaurant industry. Thank you." Chairman Skeffington suggested inviting officials from Waxy O'Connor's to the commission's meeting in September. Commissioner Gilgun suggested first ascertaining whether Waxy's has a distributor's license. Chairman Skeffington said Waxy's does not have a distributor's license. Commissioner Gilgun asked if Waxy's has a transport license, and if they do, they can go to a store to buy liquor. Chairman Skeffington asked the clerk to contact the ABCC to determine if they have a liquor transport and/or a distributor's license.

Commissioner Gilgun acknowledged receipt of a letter from the ABCC regarding a violation at a social club in Woburn and asked if the letter should be made part of the permanent record. Chairman Skeffington said there is no action the commission can take at this time but agreed the letter should be made part of the permanent record. Motion made by Commissioner Gilgun and seconded by Commissioner Pappalardo to receive the aforementioned letter and make it part of the permanent record; approved, 3-0.

Motion made by Commissioner Gilgun and seconded by Commissioner Pappalardo to adjourn; approved, 3-0. Chairman Skeffington adjourned the meeting at 6:59 p.m.
